language, cognition, and categorization

A symposium
honoring the influence of Professor Peter D. Eimas

Friday, October 20, 2006
1:00 - 5:00 PM Hillel House
80 Brown Street, Brown University

Sponsored by the Department of Cognitive & Linguistic Sciences, the Department of Psychology, and the Graduate School at Brown University

“Peter D. Eimas: Lessons and legacy of a remarkable career”
Dr. William Cooper, Univ. of Richmond

“What do infants know about cats, dogs, and people? Perceptual process, knowledge access, and expertise in early category development”
Dr. Paul Quinn, Univ. of Delaware

“Perceptual stability, perceptual change”
Dr. Lynne Nygaard, Emory University

“Gestural drift in bilingual speech”
Dr. Carol Fowler, Univ. of Connecticut and Haskins Laboratories

“Neural specializations for speech and pitch: Moving beyond the dichotomies”
Dr. Robert Zatorre, Montreal Neurological Institute